PASTORAL MESSAGE

Happy Sabbath saints and welcome to women ministry Sabbath. May we all be blessed. Women should not feel that they are excused because of their domestic cares. They should become intelligent as to how they can work most successfully and methodically in bringing souls to Christ. Women of firm principle and decided character are needed, women who believe that we are indeed living in the last days, and that we have the last solemn message of warning to be given to the world. They should feel that they are engaged in an important work in spreading the rays of light, which Heaven has shed upon them. When the love of God and His truth is an abiding principle, they will let nothing deter them from duty, or discourage them in their work. They will fear God, and will not be diverted from their labors in His cause by the temptation of lucrative situations and attractive prospects. They will preserve their integrity at any cost to themselves. These are the ones who will correctly represent the religion of Christ, whose words will be fitly spoken, like apples of gold in pictures of silver. Such persons, in many ways can do a precious work for God. He calls upon them to go out into the harvest field, and help gather in the sheaves. - DG 17.2 Sabbath Shalom

ANNOUNCEMENTS

1. PROGRAM SUMMARY

Today is Adventist Women Ministry (AWM) Sabbath. Our Preacher is Sis. Nyakio Ndwiga. Let us keep her in prayer as she shares God's Word from 2 Peter 1:3-4 on the title: “Flip that Switch”.

We shall have a panel discussion in the afternoon on the subject “When God is Silent” followed by a sundown message from Sis Nyakio Ndwiga on the subject “The Legal Perspective of Prayer.”

2. ORDER AND VISITATION

Elder David Singombe is the Elder-in-Charge of order and visitation for the week of 6th – 12th March 2022. He can be reached on 0722 214 565.
