PASTORAL MESSAGE

Happy Sabbath saints and welcome to the strategic planning and implementation Sabbath.

There is another line of work to be carried forward, the work in the large cities. There should be companies of earnest laborers working in the cities. Men should study what needs to be done in the places that have been neglected. The Lord has been calling our attention to the neglected multitudes in the large cities, yet little regard has been given to the matter. Careful Planning by several Helps is needed to prevent mistakes. Capable men are needed who will carefully count the cost and use sound judgement in their calculations. The lack of experienced men has been a great disadvantage. Every church member should actively be involved in the planning process and the work not be left to a single man's idea". (Ref: E.G. White, Fundamentals of Christian Education pg. 537 par.3 & Ministries to the Cities, pg. 61 par. 4).
