PASTORAL MESSAGE

Cut away the Surplus of self and allow the Word of God have its way in your Life.

"For the word of God is living and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the division of soul and spirit, and of joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. And there is no creature hidden from His sight, but all things are naked and open to the eyes of Him to whom we must give account. Practical truth must be brought into life, and the Word, like a sharp, two-edged sword, must cut away the surplus of self that there is in our characters."

The Word makes the proud humble, the perverse meek and contrite, the disobedient obedient. The sinful habits natural to man are interwoven with the daily practice. But the Word cuts away the fleshly lusts. It is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the mind. It divides the joints and marrow, cutting away the lusts of the flesh, making men willing to suffer for their Lord.

Now let this word of God dwell in you generously with all wisdom, admonishing each other in the best way possible.

Have a blessed Sabbath full of God's Blessings!
