OUR MISSION

The Mission of the Seventh-day Adventist Church is to make disciples of Jesus Christ who live as His loving witnesses and proclaim to all people the everlasting gospel of the Three Angels' Messages in preparation for His soon return (Matt 28:18-20, Acts 1:8, Rev 14:6-12).

TITHE AND OFFERINGS

"But this I say: He who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and he who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. So let each one give as he purposes in his heart, not grudgingly or of necessity; for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to make all grace abound toward you, that you, always having all sufficiency in all things, may have an abundance for every good work."

Happy Sabbath! Shabbat Shalom!

A warm welcome to the climax of Stewardship Week of Revival.

We are delighted to have you join in celebrating this special Sabbath. Our speaker throughout the week has been Pr. Josphat Orangi. He is an ordained minister of the Seventh-day Adventist Church for the last 22 years. He currently serves in multiple leadership roles at the South Nairobi Kajiado Field, including Stewardship Ministries and Trust Services Director, Development Director, Adventist Possibility Ministries (APM) Director, and Adventist Singles Adult Ministry (ASAM) Director. In addition to his pastoral duties, he is a licensed marriage officer and therapist in Kenya.

He is married to Shepherdess Gladys Orangi and together they are blessed with four children (two girls and two boys). We welcome and pray for him as he prepares to speak on the subject, "First Things First", inspired by Matthew 6:33.

As we celebrate this Sabbath, let us reflect on God's love and the vital role 'Tithes' and 'Offerings' (including at the local church level) play in reaching out to God's children as "disciples of Jesus Christ and members of His world church". Please lift in prayer Pr. Josphat, the singing groups, and all those ministering today. May God guide, bless, and inspire them as they lead us in worship.

PASTORAL MESSAGE: "A FAITHFUL STEWARD"

"Let a man so consider us, as servants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God. Moreover it is required in stewards that one be found faithful." (1 Corin 4:1-2, NKJV)

Paul has described himself and other ministers in the church as stewards of the mysteries of God. A "steward" is someone who manages something that does not belong to him. For instance, a wealthy man may give a trusted servant the job of managing his investments or the running of his household.

Obviously, then, for one to be trusted as a steward, he or she must be considered faithful. That means they need to have a reputation as someone who tells the truth, does not steal, and lives with integrity. This seems obvious.

Paul is making the connection that he and the other Christian teachers must also be found faithful by God in order to serve as stewards of the revealed mysteries of God. They must be trustworthy people of high integrity. Paul will continue by suggesting, however, that the ultimate measure of his trustworthiness comes from God, not from other people. While it's important that Christian leaders have a good reputation (1 Timothy 3:7), their real responsibility is to the Lord. Paul adds that one task assigned to Christian teachers, as servants of Christ, is to be stewards of the mysteries of God. The mysteries or secret things of God include the gospel, the teaching that those who come to God by faith in Christ and His death for sin on the cross can receive salvation. These "secret things" can be understood only by those who receive this revelation from God through the Holy Spirit (1 Corinthians 2:7-10)

The Six Ts of Stewardship.

Time: Managing time for family, work, and future planning.

Temple: Taking care of your body and health

Talent: Using your talents and abilities.

Treasure: Using your money and possessions wisely.

Theology: Studying the Bible, sharing and building relationships with God.

Testimony: Sharing what God has done in your life.

Tithes and Offerings

Tithe is not the same as offering. Tithes are the first ten percent of our (gross) income. Tithe actually means "tenth." The Bible also tells us we should return God's tithe to Him first, before we do anything else with our money (Proverbs 3:9).

Offering is anything you choose to give beyond your tithe. God's people have practiced tithing since Genesis (see Genesis 14:18-20 and 28:22). But Moses reintroduces Israel to tithing as law in Leviticus 27:30-34.

God's tithing law serves many purposes: Tithe was designed to support the priesthood. Today, that means pastors. "Don't you know that those who serve in the temple get their food from the temple...? In the same way, the Lord has commanded that those who preach the gospel should receive their living from the gospel" (1 Corinthians 9:13-14)

Tithing supports ministry (Deuteronomy 14:28-29). Tithing is a form of worship. It shows God we trust Him (not money) to provide for us (Malachi 3:8-12). God promises to bless us for giving. Offerings are a way we thank God for our blessings. (Deuteronomy 15:10; Proverbs 11:25; Proverbs 3:9-10). Tithing, as part of stewardship, builds character.

God bless you!

Dr. Janie Unruh holds a Ph.D. in Public Health, specializing in the connection between diet, lifestyle, and disease. She is a Health Consultant focused on lifestyle and whole, vegan, raw, living foods, as well as a Public Speaker and Cooking Class Instructor. Additionally, she is a Certified Program Director for the Nedley Depression & Anxiety Program and a Certified Hydrotherapist.

Her healthcare career began in the U.S. Army, where she served for seven years. As a former Certified Diabetes Educator, she played a pivotal role in developing a nationally recognized diabetes program.

The program became the model for her organization across three states. Her work emphasized diabetes and chronic disease reversal through a whole-food, plant-based diet and lifestyle medicine rooted in biblical principles.

For over 25 years, Dr. Janie has passionately researched the impact of diet on health, delivered sermons, and consulted clients on disease prevention and reversal through nutrition, lifestyle changes, and natural remedies. She has traveled to nearly 40 countries, many as a medical missionary, conducting health seminars, cooking classes, Bible studies on health, and establishing wellness programs.

Her expertise has been featured on QuoVadis TV Ministry, Lighthouse Ministry, 3ABN, various YouTube channels, and radio programs. As a freelance writer, she has authored numerous health-related articles.

Dr. Janie’s dedication to health education is deeply personal. After 12 years as an atheist, she married her husband, only to lose him to cancer just 40 days later. This profound loss fuels her mission to help others prevent the premature loss of loved ones through better health. She finds immense fulfillment in seeing clients regain their health to the point where they no longer need her guidance.

Alongside her husband, she is building a Health & Wellness Education Center in Kamloops, BC, which has been operational since 2021.

An avid hiker, Dr. Janie now resides in beautiful British Columbia, Canada, with her husband of 13 years.

The Medical Missionary Council warmly welcomes you to register and attend.
