OUR MISSION

The Mission of the Seventh-day Adventist Church is to make disciples of Jesus Christ who live as His loving witnesses and proclaim to all people the everlasting gospel of the Three Angels' Messages in preparation for His soon return (Matt 28:18-20, Acts 1:8, Rev 14:6-12).

TITHE AND OFFERINGS

"But this I say: He who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and he who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. So let each one give as he purposes in his heart, not grudgingly or of necessity; for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to make all grace abound toward you, that you, always having all sufficiency in all things, may have an abundance for every good work."

Happy Sabbath! Shabbat Shalom!

A warm welcome to the Adventist Young Adults Sabbath. We are delighted to have you join in worship. Our speaker is Bro. Raphael Onsongo. We welcome and pray for him as he prepares to speak on the subject, "The Blessing of the Burden; Finding Grace in the Grind". The message is inspired by Lamentations 3:27.

Please lift in prayer Bro. Raphael and all those ministering today. May God guide, bless, and inspire them as they lead us in worship.

As we celebrate this Sabbath, let us remember the young souls in the Bible who stood boldly for God's mission. David – the courageous shepherd, Joseph – the dreamer, Samuel – the dedicated prophet, Daniel – the faithful exile, Esther – the brave queen, Jeremiah – the young prophet, Josiah – the boy king, Mary – the mother of Jesus Christ, and Timothy – the young church leader. These young men and women remind us that God calls and equips the youth for His divine purpose. May the Lord God fill the youth of this generation with the Holy Spirit. May they be bold, and faithful, and ready to swiftly preach the everlasting gospel "to every nation, tribe, tongue, and people".

PASTORAL MESSAGE: "REWARD FOR RIGHTEOUSNESS"

"I have been young, and now am old; Yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken, Nor his descendants begging bread." (Psalm 37:25, NKJV)

Every life has its setbacks, but the righteous will not stay down forever. Scripture never guarantees that followers of God will be free from earthly suffering (John 16:33; Psalm 34:19). What the Bible does promise is that any pain experienced by a believer is temporary (Romans 8:28; Revelation 21:4). God's people suffer occasional misfortunes but not utter ruin. They may suffer, but they will not perish like the wicked. The Lord holds the hand of the righteous person, and thereby protects him from disaster.

The phrase "cast headlong" comes from a Hebrew term meaning "throw, cast, hurl, or carry away." The imagery here is of someone tumbling out of control. David's words depict the difference between the "stumbles" of the godly, from which there will be recovery, versus those of the ungodly, which can lead to utter ruin. This is true both in an earthly and eternal sense (2 Corinthians 7:10; 1 John 5:16–18).

The believer's fall is seen, in context, as a material misfortune. Job, for example, experienced a material fall and personal loss. He lost 7,000 sheep, 3,000 camels, 500 yoke of oxen, and 500 female donkeys (Job 1:3, 14–17). He also lost his seven sons and three daughters (Job 1:2, 18–19). Further, he lost his health (Job 2:7–8). But after these trials, Job had a clearer picture of the Lord and himself, and "the LORD blessed the latter days of Job more than his beginning" (Job 42:12). The Lord blessed Job with twice as many sheep, camels, yoke of oxen, and female donkeys as he had before the trials (Job 42:12). He also gave Job more children. "After this Job lived 140 years, and saw his sons, and his sons' sons, four generations. And Job died, an old man, and full of days" (Job 42:16–17). Job's experience foreshadows the eternal promise given to all believers (John 6:40).

David's point here is not that the "righteous" will never experience poverty, hardship, or even death (Psalm 34:19; John 16:33). Rather, his meaning is in the context of recovery (Psalm 37:24).

Strictly speaking, David is referring to his own observations, not necessarily an absolute condition of the entire world. We know that famines have struck nations in which both believers and unbelievers have died from starvation. Poverty and destitute circumstances can affect even those who honor God. Certainly, as a general rule, God provides sufficiently for His people (Matthew 6:31–33). Believers should not worry about what they should eat or drink or wear because their heavenly Father is aware of their need and has promised to meet it. That provision is not always according to what we prefer, or what we expect, but it's always according to God's perfect will (Romans 8:28–30).

The apostle Paul thanked the Philippians for sending help for his needs twice (Philippians 4:16), and he promised, "My God will supply every need of yours according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus" (Philippians 4:19).

God bless you!
