OUR MISSION

The Mission of the Seventh-day Adventist Church is to make disciples of Jesus Christ who live as His loving witnesses and proclaim to all people the everlasting gospel of the Three Angels' Messages in preparation for His soon return (Matt 28:18-20, Acts 1:8, Rev 14:6-12).

TITHE AND OFFERINGS

"But this I say: He who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and he who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. So let each one give as he purposes in his heart, not grudgingly or of necessity; for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to make all grace abound toward you, that you, always having all sufficiency in all things, may have an abundance for every good work."
2nd Corinthians 9:6-8 – NKJV

Happy Sabbath! Shabbat Shalom!

A warm welcome to the World Adventurer Sabbath. We are blessed to have you worship with us. Our speaker is Pr. Elvis Onyango. We welcome and pray for him as he prepares to speak on the subject "Provoked to Travel with Faith". The message is inspired by 1 Samuel 1:6.

Please lift in prayer Pr. Elvis and all those ministering today. May God guide, bless, and inspire them as they lead us in worship.

PASTORAL MESSAGE: "THE GRAVITY OF MISLEADING CHILDREN"

Moral Influence and Judgment

"No word or act of ours should lead a child to choose the path of evil. Those who by their influence place a stumbling block in the way of one of God's little ones will be held accountable" — Child Guidance, p. 202.

Ellen White affirms that even seemingly small words or examples can have eternal consequences when they discourage or mislead children. Therefore, work on your thoughts, your words and actions to inspire the young to stretch to the end goal.

Church Leadership and Young Believers.

"The Saviour identifies Himself with the weakest and most erring of His children... and He gives a fearful warning against doing them harm. To injure a child is to grieve the heart of Christ." — The Desire of Ages, p. 517.

The pen of inspiration emphasizes that Christ takes personally the harm done to any vulnerable believer, especially children. And the vulnerable children have a priority before His throne room than vulnerable adults. Whenever they cry like Ishmael God answers with imminent exactness.

"The words of Christ should be carefully studied and borne in mind: 'Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones...'" — Testimonies for the Church, Vol. 5, p. 602. In this context, Sis. White includes spiritual neglect or lack of compassion as forms of offense against the "little ones." Take heed lest we be indifferent to guide them to victory.

Adults bear solemn responsibility before God for how their actions affect children's faith. Misleading, discouraging, or neglecting children is seen as a grievous sin. Christ personally defends and identifies with "these little ones" (the Adventurers). As the remnant church we must protect and nurture children's spiritual, mental, physical, social lives seriously. Let's provoke them to God's ordained purpose as we celebrate 36th World Adventurer Day. God bless you!

COUNSELLING MINISTRY MEMO

Sometimes, it's tempting to put on a brave face and pretend everything is okay, to smile and distract ourselves from what's really going on inside. Yet, behind these masks, the struggle can be exhausting. We convince ourselves we're fine, but deep down, we know we need more.

That's why we invite you to consider a different path, one of healing and honesty. Therapy offers a safe space where we can drop the masks and truly unravel what we're carrying. It's a place where healing begins, where quick fixes are replaced with lasting change.

Many may think they can manage alone, but therapy shows us that we don't have to. Help is available, and healing is possible.

Join us in embracing this journey towards wholeness. For more information, reach out to the Counselling Ministry Leader, Sis. Carolyne Mboya, on +254 722 678 839.
