OUR MISSION

The Mission of the Seventh-day Adventist Church is to make disciples of Jesus Christ who live as His loving witnesses and proclaim to all people the everlasting gospel of the Three Angels' Messages in preparation for His soon return (Matt 28:18-20, Acts 1:8, Rev 14:6-12).

TITHE AND OFFERINGS

"But this I say: He who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and he who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. So let each one give as he purposes in his heart, not grudgingly or of necessity; for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to make all grace abound toward you, that you, always having all sufficiency in all things, may have an abundance for every good work."

Happy Sabbath! Shabbat Shalom!

A warm welcome to the Public Campus Ministries (PCM) Sabbath. We are very blessed to have you worship with us. Our speaker, Pr. Godswill T.K Mensah, has been ministering to us since last Sabbath. We warmly welcome him again to share the Word on the theme: "Do It Again, Lord!". The message is inspired by Acts 1:8. We kindly ask you to lift in prayer Pr. Godswill and all who are ministering today. May God guide, bless, and inspire them.

Pastoral Message: "PCM: Nurturing Adventist Witness on Campuses"

PCM of the Seventh-day Adventist Church is a global initiative established under the General Conference (GC) to nurture, empower, and engage Adventist students studying in public colleges and universities. The origins of PCM trace back to the early 20th century, when church leaders recognized the growing need to support Adventist students enrolled in non-Adventist or secular institutions.

As Adventist enrollment in public institutions increased over time, the Church identified three core priorities for PCM:

- Maintaining spiritual identity in secular environments.
- Creating fellowships where students can grow in faith.
- Empowering young people for service and witness.

In 2010, during the General Conference Session, PCM was officially established as a distinct ministry. Depending on the regional structure, it operates under the Youth Ministries Department or the Adventist Chaplaincy Ministries (ACM). This development aligns with the Church's focus on the doctrine of Growing in Christ.

PCM Vision Statement

"To inspire and equip public campus students to be disciples of Jesus and agents of change on their campuses and in the world." Or simply: "Every public campus a center of hope and light."

Core Pillars of PCM

- Nurture – Offering spiritual support and community for Adventist students.
- Empower – Developing leadership, service, and evangelism skills.
- Engage – Preparing students to witness and serve in secular campuses.

The Spirit of Prophecy strongly affirms the mission of PCM. Ellen G. White regarded secular institutions as mission fields and urged young people to be trained to be faithful witnesses for Christ in all environments. She wrote: "Educate the youth to help the youth; and in seeking to do this work each will gain experience that will qualify him to become a consecrated worker in a larger sphere. Thousands of hearts can be reached in the most simple way." — {Messages to Young People, p. 203}.

PCM encourages students to live as lights on their campuses, witnessing through lifestyle, service, and Bible study. It reflects the prophetic counsel that Adventist youth should be trained for service, especially in challenging or secular settings.

Why PCM Matters? Public Campus Ministries fulfills its mission by:

- Strengthening Adventist identity in secular institutions.
- Encouraging active witnessing and missionary engagement.
- Providing spiritual mentorship, fellowship, and discipleship opportunities.

Welcome to the PCM Sabbath. God bless you!

The third quarter's Sabbath School lessons are now available. You are encouraged to prayerfully obtain your copy.

A reading church is a spiritually nourished and empowered church. Let's stay grounded in the Word.
