OUR MISSION

The Mission of the Seventh-day Adventist Church is to make disciples of Jesus Christ who live as His loving witnesses and proclaim to all people the everlasting gospel of the Three Angels' Messages in preparation for His soon return (Matt 28:18-20, Acts 1:8, Rev 14:6-12).

TITHE AND OFFERINGS

"But this I say: He who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and he who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. So let each one give as he purposes in his heart, not grudgingly or of necessity; for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to make all grace abound toward you, that you, always having all sufficiency in all things, may have an abundance for every good work."
2nd Corinthians 9:6-8 – NKJV

Happy Sabbath! Shabbat Shalom!

A warm welcome to the Pastoral Sabbath. We are very blessed to have you worship with us. We joyfully welcome our brothers and sisters from Seventh-day Adventist Church, Bethel, in Kyanja, Kampala, Uganda. It is a blessing to have them worship with us as we share knowledge and experiences on how best to serve the Lord, our God.

Our speaker is Pr. James Gumikiriza. He is the senior pastor of Bethel Adventist church.

We warmly welcome him again to share the Word on the theme: "It's time to build the LORD a Sanctuary". The message is inspired by Exodus 25:8. We kindly ask you to lift in prayer Pr. James and all who are ministering today. May God guide, bless, and inspire them.

PASTORAL MESSAGE: "BUILD ON THE ROCKY FOUNDATION"

"And let them make Me a sanctuary, that I may dwell among them." – Exodus 25:8 (NKJV).

"For no other foundation can anyone lay than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ." – 1 Corinthians 3:11 (NKJV)

The call to build the LORD a sanctuary is not merely about physical structures but about restoring reverence, priority, and obedience to God in our midst. From the days of Moses, God has always desired to dwell among His people (Exodus 25:8). Yet, this dwelling is dependent on our willingness to make room—through devotion, sacrifice, and holy living.

The sanctuary is both a space and a symbol: a place where God's presence meets His people and where hearts are stirred toward holiness. In today's context, building the Lord a sanctuary calls us to invest in our churches, our families, and our personal lives as sacred places where God is honoured.

Prophet Haggai rebuked the Israelites for neglecting the rebuilding of God's house while they busied themselves with their own homes: "Is it time for you yourselves to dwell in your paneled houses, and this temple to lie in ruins?" (Haggai 1:4, NKJV). Because they delayed, they experienced drought, lack, and frustration: "You looked for much, but indeed it came to little... Why? Because of My house that is in ruins, while every one of you runs to his own house" (Haggai 1:9).

God's message through Haggai remains urgent today: He must be first. When we honour Him with our resources, time, and labour, He promises to bless the work of our hands.

Finally, building the Lord a sanctuary is not only about structures of stone and wood but also about becoming spiritual temples where His glory resides. Paul writes, "Do you not know that you are the temple of God and that the Spirit of God dwells in you?" (1 Corinthians 3:16, NKJV).

Let us therefore rise up in faith and unity, like the remnant in Haggai's day, and say: "Let us rise up and build" (Nehemiah 2:18). For when the sanctuary of the Lord is rebuilt—physical and in our hearts—God will again fill it with His glory: "The glory of this latter temple shall be greater than the former... and in this place I will give peace" (Haggai 2:9, NKJV).

God bless you!
